Bomb Game

Introduction/warm-up

All Classes will meet in the Scenario Room

5 minutes: Volunteers read dialogue from lesson 2.

5 minutes: Green Map Moment Introduce "Spring Blossoms." Students will copy two sentences about Zhanghe Junior High School's Spring Blossoms.

I. (5 minutes) Introduce vocabulary: Vocabulary will be presented on power point files and flash cards. Flash cards will be distributed to the class. As a vocabulary word is presented by power point, the student who has the flash card with the word must bring the card to the front of the class and say the word. The class should repeat the word.

Main content

II. (10 minutes) Read the dialogue. Students will follow Tr. Michael and read the dialogue. Taiwanese teachers, please translate as the dialogue is read for the first time. We shall read the dialogue twice.

III. (10 minutes) Practice with articles. English grammar has three articles (a, an, and the). Practice using the articles will be provided in a question/answer format in discussion/review of the lesson 3 dialogue.

Articles "a" and "an" are called indefinite articles (they are used to talk in general about one thing).

The article "the" is called a definite article (it is used to talk about one specific thing).

Examples: I would like to read a story. (The sentence does not specify which story).

I would like to read the story about Cayden and Conner. (The sentence specifies one particular story).

The article "a" is used before words beginning with a consonant; while "an" is used before words beginning with a vowel sound.

Closure

V. Bomb Game Any time remaining will be used to play the Bomb Game to review/practice vocabulary.
